CLASSROOM NEWS

We will be sending home the completed “Handwriting Without Tears” workbooks soon. We have worked in them the entire school year. Feel free to use them as a resource during the summer to review how to make letters in preparation for kindergarten.

School Picnic: We will have a regular class in the morning before the picnic. The picnic will begin at 12 PM and end by 3 PM. Hope to see you there!

GRADUATION

Letters will be sent home soon with exact information about arrival time. Please be on time since the ceremony will start promptly at 11 AM.

The children will be wearing their graduation caps (mortarboards) but NOT robes. Because graduation will be in June for the first time, the teachers are worried that it may be too warm for the children to wear robes in the unairconditioned church. Feel free to have them dress up but please keep the temperature in mind.

SPECIAL REQUEST FOR THE GIRLS: when styling your child's hair for the graduation, please remember that we will be putting their caps on right before we enter the church. "Pig tails" or high "pony tails" or any similar hair style involving the top of the head may cause the cap to not fit properly. We want the children comfortable and happy on their big day!

On a personal note, I'd like to take the opportunity to thank you for entrusting us with your precious children. This year has been a delight for me to teach. Not only is this particular group of children very smart, they are very nice little people. For the most part, they have gotten along very well and seem to enjoy being together.

Many thanks for the daily snacks, holiday treats and the teacher gifts that you have supplied throughout the year. But most of all, thank you for doing such a good job raising such terrific kids! Mrs. DeStefano and I love them and will miss them. We wish them the very best next year and every year to follow.

God Bless!

Mrs. J.
