Classroom News:

Wow, it's so hard to believe that this is our last newsletter of the year. This year has really gone fast. It has been such a wonderful year with the children. We have had so much fun!! So many smiles and laughs!! Thank you for everything that you and your family have done for us this year!!

May 9th will be our Mother's Day Celebration. On this day you are to report to our classroom at 9:30. Your child is to come with you and leave with you at the conclusion of the program. We will be giving you a brief glance into our day and we will also be doing a craft together. Light refreshments will be served. This program will last about an hour. Our last regular class will be on Tuesday, May 21st. Our school picnic will be held at Core Creek on Thursday, May 23rdth. More information is included with your monthly communication information. God Bless and have a safe and happy summer.
